The incident was investigated by Constable Bob Wood.

House fire claims one, two injured

One person is dead and two have suffered minor injuries in a fire that destroyed a home near Tory Hill shortly after midnight Monday morning.

Police believe the deceased person to be 55 year old Alberta Margaret White. The remains have been sent to the Centre for Forensic Sciences in Toronto for positive identification.

White was an occupant of a house at Lot 16 Concession 11 Monmouth Township. The one room building was destroyed in the blaze.

Other occupants of the house who suffered minor injuries were Mathew John Hogan, 46, and Victor Alan Cary, 63, of Pine Street in Haliburton.

Police believe that the fire was started when a flammable liquid was added to a wood burning stove. An explosion resulted engulfing the wood structure in flames.

(Radio Monday morning had indicated incorrectly that the fire had taken place in Minden.)

Corporal Ron Foran and Constable Weldon Popp of the Minden OPP Detachment are investigating the incident along with an officer from the Ontario Fire Marshall's Office.

Carnival dates Jan. 30, 31, Feb. 1

Planning for Minden's annual winter carnival is well underway, according to a spokesman for the local Kinsmen Club. This year's event will include a number of traditional events as well as a few surprises.

Among the new items on the agenda is a snowdeo planned for Saturday afternoon at the fair ground. The event will combine the action of traditional rodeo events with the motorized power of snowmobiles. The snowdeo is being organized by Tom Prentice and will likely prove to be a popular addition to this year's line up.

Some changes in the schedule have been made to accommodate those taking part in the carnival. The official opening of the event will take place Friday evening just prior to the selection of the Winter Carnival Queen. The Queen Contest, official opening and figure skating presentation will take place at the arena.

One of the main highlights of the weekend, the carnival parade, is scheduled for noon on Saturday. It will wind through the village ending at the arena, where an afternoon full of activities, from drag races to log sawing contests, will be in progress.

Car racing on ice has been moved to South Lake this year and bus service will be

Danes shut-out by Minden Midgets — find Canadian hockey rougher

A Minden Midget, left, and a member of the visiting Danish team chase the puck along the boards during an exhibition game January 6 at the Minden arena.

In a rather lopsided game, the Minden Midgets outplayed the visiting team from Denmark January 6 to defeat the overseas visitors 11-0.

The win came as an unexpected surprise for many in the arena. They expected a higher calibre of play from the Danish team. However, there were a number of extenuating circumstances which played against the overseas visitors.

The first was their age. The team, though officially named Midget team were in fact Bantam age players. The group plays in the Midget league in Denmark, but the Danish Hockey Federation uses a different age category for separating the various divisions. They may have been called Midgets back home, but their age and experience matched them with players of the Bantam teams in Ontario.

The second problem faced by the Danish team was the fact that prior to the visit to Canada half the members of the team had not played with their teammates. The team combined players from two clubs. Frederikshavn in the north of Denmark contributed a number of players while the other members of the team came from Herlev near Copenhagen. The team had only a limited number of practises since coming to Canada.

It should be noted as well that the team did not represent the top players of the Danish Hockey Federation. These players were simply those who had expressed an interest in coming to Canada during the Christmas break to play a number of local teams. The team members and their families paid their own expenses for the trip.

The only win for the visitors came in Uxbridge where they defeated the local Midgets by a 5-4 margin. The team used Uxbridge as their base and travelled to a number of centres in southern Ontario. Other games included Teeswater (5-3 loss); Pickering (10-0 shut-out); Smithville (10-2 loss) and Fenelon Falls where they lost 9-2. The team had one more game to play in Uxbridge before returning to Denmark Friday.

One of the team members said the players will have some unpleasant memories of their game in Smithville. The Midgets there apparently attempted to muscle the visitors right out of the arena even though it was obvious the players were smaller and less experienced in general than the home team. A request from one of the Canadian organizers between

FROM THE CHAMBER

By Bob Stinson

On a regular basis Creighton Feir, who writes a column in one of these papers, has been harping on the fact that this county needs some form of industry other than tourism to make it viable. He suggests that the Chamber and many others are apparently blind to this and that we should be doing something about it.

As a result of these columns the Economic Development Commission invited Mr. Feir as of last May, to attend a meeting and head up a task force of individuals of his own choosing to provide concrete suggestions to the commission on how some of his concerns could be addressed. To date, he has not accepted this invitation and yet he continues to say others are not doing anything.

To suggest that anyone in this county is not concerned with industrial development is ridiculous. It is not, however, a simple matter of going out and placing an order for a nice "clean, non-polluting industry" to set up shop here. There is an incredible amount of work going on by both the commission and individual municipalities to encourage development but it is not an easy task. They may or may not be successful, but the effort is certainly being made and they are all quite receptive to hear any constructive suggestions that anyone may have.

Mr. Feir's comment about a "two month tourist season" would also suggest that he is just not paying attention. One restaurant owner said last week that the two weeks surrounding Christmas and New Year's were as busy as any that he experienced last summer. Winter business here is developing each year as facilities and attractions are created and improved. Spring and fall have not developed as well as anticipated and it will take a major attraction such as the proposed steam train to improve the potential in those seasons.

The Ministry of Industry and Tourism certainly recognizes that there is a great potential in winter tourism. Anyone who purchased the weekend Star last week will have received the colourful "Yours to Discover" section that is aimed strictly at promoting winter in places such as the Highlands. Our Winter Carnivals are listed in this promotional piece and unfortunately the date shown for Minden is incorrect.

This was due to the error in the information received by the Chamber last August that was in turn submitted to the Ministry. Corrected information was since sent out but too late for publications such as this. This is a good example of why the Chamber needs accurate information on coming events well in advance. The deadline for summer dates is the end of February.

It may not be ideal to have our economy so heavily related to tourism, but as long as it is, we would do well to realize it and make the best of it. The search will continue for other avenues to provide employment and economic benefit to the people of the county, and in the meantime we should welcome every opportunity to bring visitors here and expand on the one major industry that is already here - tourism.

New membership fees

At a Board of Directors meeting last week the Chamber's membership fee schedule was revised and updated. In an attempt to simplify the structure a number of categories were eliminated and included with others. It has been three years since the fees have been adjusted so it is natural to expect a fairly substantial increase in the fees since they had fallen behind the rest of the budget.

The new fees come into effect immediately and will be reflected in all new memberships or any that come due from this time forward. We hope you will agree that in inflationary times your membership in the Chamber increases in value along with everything else.

available for those who do not have transportation to the location. That does not mean the track in town will not be used. Snowmobile races will be held on the oval in addition to the drag races in the fair grounds.

The Times will be providing complete details on the carnival as the event draws near. The week of the carnival, a schedule of events indicating the time and location, will be published in this newspaper. The main thing, at this point, is to note the proper dates for the carnival. A government publication included with all daily newspapers this past Saturday indicated the wrong dates.

Please note the Minden Winter Carnival will be held on January 30, 31 and February 1.

Players scramble for the puck in front of the Rockcliffe Hotel team's goalmouth during a recreation league game Monday night at the arena. Hartwick Construction defeated the short-handed hotel team by an 11-3 margin. In the other game Monday Hall's Insurance downed Home Hardware, 6-3.

periods that the Smithville team ease off on the physical contact drew a negative response from the coach. Several Danish team members suffered injuries in that game.

In the main, however, the players, the members of their families and team staff appeared to have enjoyed their visit to Canada. Jeppe Orskov Christensen, the captain of the Frederikshavn team said the players enjoyed the body contact in the game, once they got used to it. "At home the referees are quick to blow the whistle when there is any body contact," he commented before the game on Tuesday. "Here it is more a part of the game and there are fewer whistles stopping the play."

Christensen also noted that the referees tend to allow the goalie more time to get rid of the puck if he happens to catch or trap it. "It keeps the game moving faster with fewer whistles," he said.

The captain said if there was anything the players didn't like it was that they were having too much "fun". He complained they had spent a great deal of time visiting factories and farms and shopping centres when the members would have preferred to have been playing hockey.

Two items on their itinerary stood out for the captain however. The first was the trip up the CN Tower in Toronto. He said it was one of the main highlights for most of the team members.

The players also brought with them a Danish National Hockey Team sweater to be included in the collection at the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto. Christensen commented that the Danish Federation could have sent the sweater by mail but felt it was better if members of a team from Denmark could present it personally for the collection. The sweater was accepted by a curator of the hall of fame, and the museum, which was to have been closed the day the team visited Toronto, was opened especially for them.

Despite the bumps and bruises the players picked up in their introduction to the Canadian style of hockey, the team members agreed that their visit to Canada was worth the time and expense.

A report on the game and the festivities laid on by the local hockey association, can be found in this issue of The Times.

the young citizens call upon seniors in their neighbourhood to extend a gift and a seasonal greeting.

This evidence of thoughtfulness was much appreciated by the recipients and brought forth the comment that there is so much that is fine about our young people. This is very true in spite of the occasional lemon we hear so much about.

We know of one very embarrassed senior couple who were visited by some young people in their area who began singing Christmas carols. The man of the house went to the door to greet the young carollers but could not get it open because of ice at the bottom of the storm door. Calls through the door asking the singers to come to the back door were unheard by them. At this point the lady of the house went to the window and waved towards the back door. Unfortunately the children misunderstood the signal, and apparently thinking they were being ordered off the verandah immediately departed. The people involved hope the young singers will see this and return for a friendly visit.

Recent New Year's dances in the township proved to be thoroughly enjoyable events and as becomes Stanhope provided the attendants with a happy evening. The dance at the Community Hall, sponsored by Mrs. Ann Barker, also provided funds for a number of worthwhile purposes.

Ann informs us that the proceeds enabled her to make a donation of $700 to the Happy Gang Bus Fund at Extencicare, while $50 will be given to the Recreation Committee and another $100 will be donated to the Volunteer Firemen's Association to meet the expenses of the annual Christmas party for the children and senior citizens. In addition the Community Hall Committee will receive a donation together with the rental for the hall.

This effort by Ann deserves much credit, particularly in view of the fact that it was almost a solo attempt.

It is our understanding that Ann is hoping to support the idea of Stanhope Hospitality by having a dance perhaps in April and then a fall dance later in August, with proceeds after expenses going to worthwhile community undertakings.

We think the idea has plenty of merit and is deserving of support.

It should be mentioned that Ann put so much time and work into the preparation for the recent dance that the expenses were kept to a minimum with no personal remuneration, and it is of further interest to know that some of our seasonal residents from some distance away enjoy coming to Stanhope for these events.

Increased independence comes with TOSC device

Every year, as a part of its annual fund raising drive, the Ontario March of Dimes issues a number of reports on individuals who have benefited from their services. One of those featured in this year's reports is Grenville Stamp of West Guilford, the owner of the Minden Laundromat and former part owner of this newspaper.

The following report, prepared by the March of Dimes, charts the progress Grenville has made since the tragic automobile accident a year and a half ago.

On Friday, July 13 Grenville Stamp of West Guilford started the day just like any other. Up at six, a quick breakfast and off to his laundromat in nearby Minden.

The morning fog still hadn't lifted as he left the house and headed down the winding, hilly road into town.

It was to be a busy day as his laundry handled the thousands of soiled T shirts, shorts and other assorted clothing brought in from the many summer children's camps which dotted the surrounding lakes in this well-known tourist haven.

Suddenly everything changed. As Grenville came over a hill he confronted a large county truck. He swerved off the road to the right then back to the left catching the tail light of the truck before smashing into a tree.

Damage to the truck totalled only $28.00, but to Grenville much more.

His new $11,000.00 car was a loss and the impact had snapped his neck, causing total paralysis from the shoulders down.

He was rushed to the Minden Red Cross Hospital where a helicopter soon arrived to transport him to the Sunnybrook Medical Centre in Toronto.

There it was learned he would never regain the use of his arms or legs. "When the doctor told me," said Grenville, "I cried and cried."

For over two months he was placed in a special apparatus designed to hold his head in place while the neck mended. One part of this device was called a halo. It was attached by a series of small holes drilled into the skull. Twice it fell out which required a two-hour operation to put it back into place.

Late? let them know

Members of the local detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police have been spending a great deal of time tracing cottagers who have been slow in returning to the city. The cottagers are often delayed by bad weather or problems with their vehicles.

However, once the individual fails to return home at the expected time the police are contacted and officers of the local detachment have been kept busy attempting to locate these "missing" people.

The police request that if visitors or cottagers are delayed in reaching their destination someone in the party make an effort to contact someone at the home to inform them of the delay. The call will help ease the concern of those expecting a person or party and also relieve some of the burden on the police who have been involved in a number of searches for overdue cottagers.

now barriers so a lift and a ramp were built. Furniture had to be rearranged to allow enough room for the wheelchair. His wife now had to turn him every two hours during the day and night to prevent spasms and body sores. She had to become his arms and legs.

However, recent advances in electronics for the physically disabled have made life a lot easier. After hearing about Grenville's situation the Ontario March of Dimes provided him with a touch operated select and control unit.

Better known as TOSC, the unit allows him to make phone calls, answer the door, operate the door lock, play a tape recorder, turn off lights, a television and radio plus select the station and channel. Many other household appliances can easily be hooked up to the unit.

To both Grenville and Fay, the unit means independence. He can be left at home alone and still have contact with the outside through his telephone.

Fay no longer has to be on constant call to turn the radio or television on or select the proper station.

With the TOSC unit, Grenville is able to use the phone to book all the bands for the monthly West Guilford community dance. An event he never misses.

When Grenville said, "People in a small town are just great," he had good reason. Everyone has pitched in to help him get back into the swing of community life. The Rotary Club bought the lift for a van the community purchased for him. The Kinsmen and Lions are also helping.

With this kind of help he has come a long way since that day in the hospital when three weeks after the accident he was told he would never use his arms or legs again.

He still has a long way to go, but he will become an active community member once again.

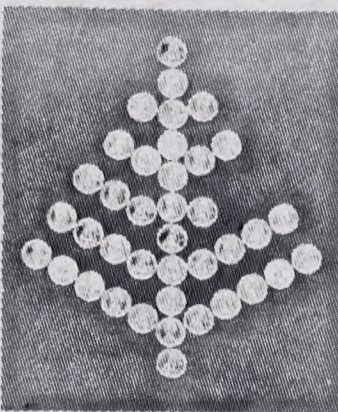

Everyone can help this happen by making sure that new curbs and buildings are properly ramped and by giving him the opportunity to take part.

The Ontario March of Dimes offers an architectural service on how to make buildings accessible along with a complete information service about the physically disabled.

An accessible town doesn't cost that much more if consideration is given during the planning stages.

This 'n that

It was gratifying to see so many lovely quilts on display at the Rail's End Gallery. The quilts represent many hours of eye-straining work and concentration by individuals and groups. The designs, patterns and colours were a delight to see, teasing the eye with geometric illusions and fanciful flights of whimsy.

There is something very reassuring about quilts, something akin to the security blanket little children cherish, or that comfortable, old chair, that has, through the years, taken on the form of its owner.

Quilts represent home. They are comforters that provide warmth beyond their utilitarian purpose. In them, one can see a snug kitchen in winter, with a crackling fire in the stove, or feel the loving hug of a grandmother. A quilt is a smile, an anchor, stability.

It is reassuring to realize the art and practise of quilting is still alive and thriving in the Highlands. Certainly this winter, they would have made a welcome addition to any bedroom.

Whether they are the fancy kind that command the respect of a keen judge's eye, or a rough comforter made with no less loving touch, may our world never be without the warmth of quilts.

We would be remiss if we did not note that the streets in the core area of Minden have received very careful treatment of late from the township crews. This is a fact much appreciated by merchants and shoppers alike. Thank you, gentlemen.

And, while we are handing out bouquets, we would also like to salute the many merchants who added to the Christmas spirit with colourful and imaginative window displays this past festive season. We congratulate them on their efforts.

Commentary from Ron Reid of the Federation of Ontario Naturalists.

1980 may well be remembered among bird-lovers as the year in which Ontario's bird life became poorer by one species. For the first time on record, the beaches of Long Point were not enlivened this past summer by the shrill peeps of the Piping Plover, one of Ontario's endangered species.

This smaller relative of the Killdeer depends on broad sandy beaches for its nesting, the same sandy beaches that attract crowds of sun-seekers and bathers on summer days. As a result, the Piping Plover has been pushed from many of its habitats, and the sandy reaches of Long Point in Lake Erie, protected as a National Wildlife Area, have become its only nesting ground on the lower Great Lakes. But even here, where over a hundred pairs nested before 1930, the plovers' numbers had dwindled until 1980 finally saw no birds at all.

According to Dave Hussell from the Long Point Bird Observatory, the cause of this final decline is not habitat destruction, such as the changes to Toronto islands that ended nesting there years ago. High water levels several years ago forced a shift in the traditional breeding areas at Long Point, but the importance of that shift, which must be a recurring natural phenomenon, is hard to assess. A more important factor in the plight of the plovers appears to be predation of their nests by raccoons and Ring-billed Gulls. These gulls have increased tremendously on the Great Lakes over the past half century, and their favourite summering areas are the same sandy beaches used by plovers. Hussell suggests that this pressure from gull predation may have been the "last straw" for the hard-pressed plovers.

Even with legal protection under Ontario's Endangered Species Act, the future looks grim for this little sand-coloured plover. A few pairs continue to nest on Lake of the Woods, and several dozen pairs are found on remote Michigan beaches. But the days when this shorebird was common along many of the beaches of southern Ontario are gone forever. The question now is whether we can create the necessary conditions to keep even a few of these birds of the beaches as a part of Ontario's mosaic of wildlife.

Letters Letters

Editor:

May I, through your helpful paper, send a message to the people of Minden from my cottage in England?

During my visit to Haliburton Highlands there were so many kindly folk who offered hospitality, which, alas, I was unable to honour. It would sadden me even more if I left an impolite impression, when, in reality, I was deeply moved by their friendliness and warmth of heart.

St. Paul's Church was used for peaceful meditation, so I greatly thank the members for their beautiful church plus their smiling welcome to a widow, still vulnerable from bereavement.

The Gull River, glorious trees and lakes were a joy to view. I also had splendid fun buying all my carry-home gifts from the Minden stores and shops!

Christmastide is here again. I wish you, each and everyone, a Merry Christmas and Glad New Year.

Goodbye, with gratitude,

— Opinion —

The following Opinion was written by Mac Makarchuk, NDP MPP for Brantford and that party's Solicitor General critic.

Several recent shootings of policemen have accentuated the interest in the use of bullet-proof vests. Increasingly, police officers and their associations are demanding that police authorities provide vests as standard police equipment. We, in this party, fully support the demand and are disturbed that, to date, they have not been provided and even now, many authorities are resisting the request.

Helmets and safety shoes are standard safety equipment for construction workers, miners, and most industrial employees. Frequently their use, as with other personal safety equipment, is mandatory. Such equipment is provided, normally, at the expense of the employer and its cost, one way or another, ends up being paid for by the public.

Bullet-proof vests for policemen, surely are items of safety equipment as essential to them as are helmets and safety shoes to vast numbers of other workers. If policemen want them, they should get them and they should be a legitimate charge against the police governing authorities' budgets. As a non-recurring cost of $200 to $600 each, the additional burden to the taxpayers would be negligible and one, we're sure, that they would assume willingly.

The Ontario Government has recognized its responsibility for workers' safety in a number of fields. We believe the evidence is more than ample to warrant its intervention in this matter. Therefore, we call on the Solicitor General, Mr. Roy McMurtry, not only to provide bullet-proof vests to OPP officers but, as well, require all police authorities to issue them to police officers in their various jurisdictions.

First issue features musical instrument

The first stamp issue for 1981 will feature an antique musical instrument. The stamp will be released January 19 in Vancouver in conjunction with the "Look of Music" exhibition taking place there.

The stringed instrument depicted on the 17-cent commemorative postage stamp is an eighteenth-century mandolin, a predecessor of the mandolin and part of the Royal Ontario Museum collection. It is on display at the "Look of Music" exhibition, held in Vancouver Centennial Museum from November 2, 1980 to April 5, 1981.

The stamp will be cancelled in Vancouver, B.C. and Official First Day Covers will carry a Vancouver cancellation only. The stamp will be a special memento of this unique exhibition, where more than 300 rare musical instruments dating from 1500 to 1900 will be on display.

The stamp was designed by Clive Webster and the typography prepared by William Tibbles, both of Toronto. Twenty-one million five hundred thousand stamps will be printed in five-colour lithography by Ashton-Potter Limited, Toronto.

1981 stamp program

The 1981 stamp program was announced recently by Postmaster General Andre Ouellet. "Canada Post's commemorative program for the coming year will focus attention on Canadian accomplishments in the arts, history, and science," said Mr. Ouellet.

Stamps commemorating noteworthy Canadians will make up a substantial part of the program. The Endangered Wildlife and Aircraft series will continue.

Changes coming delegates told

A special meeting of the Haliburton Social Planning Council was held on Friday, January 9, to hear of the plans which the Ministry of Community and Social Services have for children's services in the future.

Marni Ingram of the ministry said that within 3 to 4 years the municipalities will assume full responsibility for the organization of such services in their areas. She told of a survey of children's agencies in Peterborough, Victoria and Haliburton Counties which was carried out in 1979 and 1980 and which will be used as a basis for setting up of an advisory committee in each county to consider and act upon local needs and issues during a transitional period.

To examine these changes further, the regular January meeting of the Social Planning Council will be held at PineStone Inn at 7:30 Thursday, January 29.

It is important that everyone interested in better children's services attend this meeting, particularly those who are able to serve upon the advisory committee.

Four stamps commemorating Canadian feminists Henrietta Edwards, Louise McKinney, Idola Saint-Jean, and Dr. Emily Stowe will be released on March 4 at a ceremony on Parliament Hill.

The month of April will see the issue of four stamps. On April 6 the last two stamps in the Endangered Wildlife Series initiated in 1977 will feature the Vancouver Island marmot and the wood bison. Two stamps will be issued on April 24 in honour of the beatification in 1980 of Kateri Tekakwitha and Marie de l'Incarnation. The Tekakwitha stamp will be launched in Caughnawaga, followed by ceremonies the next day in Quebec City for Mere Marie de l'Incarnation.

Three stamps, one honouring Frederick H. Varley, one Marc-Aurele Fortin, and the other Paul-Emile Borduas, all noted Canadian painters, will be issued on May 19 in conjunction with the international stamp show, WIPA, in Vienna, Austria.

The theme for the annual Canada Day issue is the evolution of Canada from 1867 to today as depicted on four maps from different time periods and reproduced on four se tenant postage stamps in a miniature sheet of sixteen to be issued as part of Canada Week activities.

For their contributions to the field of botany, both John Macoun and Frere Marie-Victorin will be honoured with a stamp issue in mid-July. A stamp to mark the creation of a permanent floral exhibition at the site of Les Florales Internationales de Montreal, held in 1980, will be issued the same day as part of the Florales festivities.

On July 31, a postage stamp will be issued to commemorate the bicentennial of Niagara-on-the-Lake.

A stamp to commemorate Acadians and their culture will be issued on August 14 at Memramcook, N.B., followed by a ceremony to be held during the Acadian festival at Caraquet, N.B.

Aaron Mosher will be honoured with a stamp, to be issued on September 3, for his contribution to the labour movement.

Former Governor-General of Canada Jules Leger will be honoured with a commemorative stamp to be issued on October 5, the anniversary of his appointment. He assumed office on January 14, 1974.

The 1981 edition of the Christmas stamps, to be issued on October 16 at Sorel, Quebec, will be devoted to Christmas trees on the occasion of the bicentennial of the first illuminated Christmas tree in Canada, which was erected at Sorel.

The year's program will conclude with the issue on November 10 of four stamps featuring training and transport aircraft, which is the third set of the Aircraft Series begun in 1979.

Gracey to speak

Charles Gracey, outspoken manager of the Canadian Cattlemen's Association, Toronto, will be the feature speaker at the annual meeting of the Victoria County Community Pasture Committee to be held at the Agricultural Office, Lindsay, on Tuesday, January 20, at 8:00 p.m.

Gracey, a strong proponent of free enterprise, has been under pressure to support marketing legislation which would place controls on these freedoms. His talk titled "The Profit Cycle in the Beef Industry" draws attention to the factors affecting profit and suggests that beef producers interested in making a profit should be aware of these factors and act accordingly. There will be a question and answer period.

Douglas Graham, Ome-mee, chairman of the committee has invited all cattle producers in the area to attend the meeting to hear Mr. Gracey and to learn more about the operation of the pasture farm.

During the past grazing season, 92 herd owners grazed 611 steers and 313 heifers on the pasture. The steers had an average gain of 237 lbs. per head and the heifers gained an average of 222 lbs. for a total gain of 214,713 pounds.

Warm patterns for chilly days

An interesting array of quilts is currently on display at the Rail's End Gallery in Haliburton.

The quilts, 31 in all, were done by local artists and were included in a competition sponsored by the Guild. The judging of the entries took place last week with the awards being presented Saturday evening by Haliburton-Victoria MP Bill Scott.

Mrs. M.D. Ford of Lindsay captured three of the prizes, winning awards for the best overall quilt in the show, the best traditional applique and the best traditional patchwork quilt. The prize for the best traditional design was presented to Mrs. Margaret Carr of Fenelon Falls. The best group quilt prize was won by Mrs. Jean Freeman and Mrs. Irene Miller, both of Haliburton Lake. Elaine Jackson of Haliburton submitted the best novice quilt in the exhibition.

Following the announcement of the winners Saturday night, the audience watched the film entitled "Patterns of Love", which traces the history of quilting and quilt patterns in Canada. A wine and cheese party followed.

The quilts will remain on display at the gallery until January 31 with a two day workshop for quilters planned for January 29-30.

MNR winter trail system

With the winter season now upon us, recreational use of snowmobile and cross country ski trails is well under way throughout the district. Abundant snow fall and cold temperatures have provided excellent conditions for these winter activities.

Ministry of Natural Resources staff at Minden are responsible for maintaining ministry trails as well as for providing grants to local clubs to assist with maintenance of their trails.

The ministry '5 Points Recreation Trail' located in the eastern part of the district is about 114 kilometres in length and is accessible from five different road access points where parking lots are provided.

Again this year grants are being provided to four local snowmobile clubs, namely the Haliburton County Snowmobile Association, the Twin Mountains Snowmobile Club, the Somerville District Snowmobile Association, and the Buckhorn District Snowmobile Association. These clubs maintain about 500 kilometres of well groomed public trails interconnecting with ministry trails.

For cross-country skiers, Minden District staff maintain the Victoria County Forest Trail, located just west of Kinmount off Highway 503. This trail is approximately 9 kilometres in length and is suitable for both novice and experienced skiers.

Also, a grant is being provided to the Haliburton

Cross-Country Ski Club to assist in maintaining about 40 kilometres of public trail near the village of Haliburton.

The Minden office may be contacted for further information on individual trails in the district.

Close games during Haliburton tourney

One of the notable features of the Alcide Carpentier Tournament which just concluded in Haliburton Village this past weekend was the evenly matched teams that participated.

Right from the opening day on Friday, most games were decided by a one or two goal difference and three games required a "shoot-off" to declare a winner. This requires selected players to take "penalty shots" at the opposition net to decide a winner when a game has ended in a tie.

On Sunday, the final day, all the games are championship games. An "A" and "B" champion is declared in both championship sides and then the "A" and "B" winners play off for a grand championship. Of these six games, all but one had only a one goal difference at the conclusion. No one could have asked for more exciting action.

The Haliburton Pee Wee team was in the consolation series after losing their first game to Oak Ridges. They then defeated Leaside and Georgetown, allowing only one goal against them in each game and took the "B" Consolation Championship. They then put on a valiant effort against Newmarket, winner of the "A" consolation in the Consolation Grand Championship game. They were defeated 2 to 1 but local supporters were justly proud of the team effort they had just witnessed and in particular the net minding acrobatics of Mike McLean.

On the Championship side, Willowdale Boys Club won their first game against Oshawa by a slim 1-0 margin and went on to defeat Royal York and Grand Ravine to win the "A" Championship and Oro, the "B" Champions to win the Grand Championship.

A recent article in the Toronto Star quotes the Willowdale team as choosing the Haliburton tournament over one in Boston and from the outcome it would appear to be a wise choice on their part.

The Grand Championship trophy is the Alcide Carpentier Memorial Trophy and the consolation award is the Fred Nieman Memorial Trophy. Both were presented by members of the family. The LaRue trophy for sportsmanship was presented by Scottie LaRue, to the Peterborough Northminister team coached by Steve Taylor.

Individual awards were also given for the best players in various categories. Cory McKnight, rear guard on the Haliburton team was awarded the Best Defenseman in the "B" division trophy. Newmarket and Oro netminders won the Best Goalie awards and Willowdale and Oro the best forwards. Willowdale's defenseman, Sammy Sarris won the "A" defenseman award.

This is the second of three annual tournaments that are put on through the efforts of the Haliburton Minor Hockey Association and the Lake Kashagawigamog Tourist Association. Their next event is for Atoms, up to 10 years old and is set for the weekend of February 13, 14 and 15.

Danes trounced by Midgets 11-0

Terry Crowe was between the pipes January 6 as the Minden Midgets trounced the visitors from Denmark in an exhibition game at the local arena. The final score in the contest was 11-0 in favour of the local squad.

An excellent crowd was on hand to witness the game.

Kevin Hamilton, Ivan Ingram and Bob Edge led the attack for the local team with a pair of goals each. Hamilton and Ingram also assisted on two other goals.

Other Minden scorers included Eldon Bull with an unassisted effort and four assists; Greg Austin with a goal and an assist; Andy Pristol with a single and two assists; Jeff Stamp with one and one; and Harold Cowan with a single. Assists went to Hugh Allore, MacLeod and Newell, each with a pair and goalie Terry Crowe, who figured in one of Minden's goals.

Prior to the game the players of both teams, Danish family members and team officials were treated to a dinner, courtesy of the Minden Minor Hockey Association. MP Bill Scott acted as the MC for the gathering, welcoming the overseas visitors to Minden and presenting them with Canadian flag pins.

MPP John Eakins was unable to attend the dinner due to a snow storm, but he was able to send a supply of gifts for the visitors. Presentations were also made by Rob Young and Lyle McKnight on behalf of the Minden Kinsmen Club.

The visitors were also presented with "hospitality bags" by the Minor Hockey Association which included small tokens from a number of area businesses.

Prior to the start of the game, the Danish players exchanged gifts with members of the local team. The visitors received pins while they presented the Minden team members with penants from Denmark.

Haliburton curlers on the button

Haliburton curlers are making their marks in the world of the broom and stone.

This past weekend a foursome from the Haliburton Club triumphed over entries from area clubs to claim the Ontario Curling Association Seagram's mixed division championship, played in Ennismore.

The local curlers were facing entries from Lindsay, Bobcaygeon, Peterborough and other communities in the area. The team now advances to the eastern Ontario finals scheduled for February 8 in Belleville. If successful at that level they'll be off to the provincials.

Members of the mixed rink include Bob Colliver, skip, Jean Colliver, vice skip, Gary Bailey, second, and Christine Bailey, lead.

Second in second

Another rink from the Haliburton club captured second spot in the second event of the R.S. McLaughlin Bonspiel played recently. Leading the rink was skip Dick McLean, with Gary Bailey as vice, Glen Blair second, and Dave Chatfield lead. Sixty-four teams took part in the weekend competition.

On to the Colts

A rink from the Haliburton club will also be taking part in the OCA Colts 'spiel being held in the downtown Peterborough club this Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Members of the rink include Dick McLean skip, Gary Bailey vice, Scottie LaRue second and Dave Chatfield lead.

This weekend

One of the highlights of the curling season in Haliburton takes place this weekend as the annual Skyline Bonspiel takes place. Thirty-two rinks are expected to take part with the finals scheduled for Sunday at the Haliburton club.

Consolation cup for Minden Atoms

The Minden Atoms did not take top spot in the tournament this past Saturday, but they did capture secondary honours in an exciting consolation finish that saw the game go into overtime.

The local Atom team claimed the Sid Stamp Fuels trophy and silver medals for their efforts against Mark Street of Peterborough in the consolation championship. The game went into sudden death overtime with the score tied at one goal apiece. Scott Russell who scored all of Minden's goals throughout the tournament, connected on an unassisted effort to secure the silverware for the hometown team.

The championship trophy was awarded to the Woodville entry after they downed Haliburton in the final contest 6-2. Woodville was presented with the Frontier Motors trophy and gold medallions.

Eight teams participated in the one day event with each entry guaranteed at least two games. The following is a break-down of the action:

First round: Haliburton defeated Minden 2-1; Bobcaygeon over Fenelon Falls 5-3; Woodville 4, Mark Street (Peterborough) 1; and Omamee defeated St. John (Peterborough) 1-0 in a shoot-off.

Semi-final championship round: Haliburton 3, Bobcaygeon 1; and Woodville defeated Omamee 3-3, the game being decided on the basis of the first goal scored. Woodville then went on to defeat Haliburton by a 6-2 score for the championship.

Semi-final consolation round: Minden defeated Fenelon Falls 3-2; and Mark St. over St. John 4-2. Minden then took Mark St. in the consolation final 2-1.

Scott Russell scored all the goals for Minden, netting the single against Haliburton in an unassisted effort; three against Fenelon Falls with one unassisted and assists on the other two from Sheldon Stevenson and Dwayne Cooper; and in the final game, the first goal with assist from Sheldon Stevenson and unassisted in the tie-breaker. Darrell Walker was in goal for Minden.

Haliburton goal getters in the first contest were Jaro Cooper from Erin Nicholls; and Erin Nicholls from Jeff Warburton and Ben Packard. In the second contest against Bobcaygeon Jeff Warburton netted two for Haliburton, one unassisted and the second from Perrin and Packard. In the final game against Woodville, the Haliburton goals were scored by Dean Brownson from Rydman and Byers; and Darren Byers from Perrin and Rydman.

Minden coach Tom Russell said he was pleased with his team's effort in the tournament.

Team captain and busy goal scorer Scott Russell accepts the Sid Stamp Fuels trophy from Shirley Hie of Minden Minor Hockey. Russell's Atom team had just won the consolation championship in a tournament this past weekend at the local arena.

Lines from Lutterworth

by Jean Lacey

Hi! Hope all are keeping away from the flu bug. Hear it's making the rounds. Best thing to do, to keep from getting colds and such, is to hibernate.

Pleased to hear Mrs. Jack Johnson is home from the hospital.

Steve and Betty Fox travelled to Oshawa for the weekend.

Mrs. Lewis has been up visiting with her son and daughter-in-law, Major and Mrs. Lewis.

Len Flaxman and his girlfriend were up for cross country skiing and stayed over with the Dunsfords.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Ted Madill isn't feeling too well these days. Hope she is better soon.

Arnie Wright is in Haliburton Hospital because of a back problem. She will be there from 10 to 14 days. Get all the rest you can Arnie, but hurry up and get better.

Sorry to hear about the fire at Tory Hill Sunday night. With this cold weather the stoves have been going full blast and it causes a build-up of creosote in the chimneys which causes fires.

The Bowron's had a birthday supper for their daughter-in-law, Ruby, on Wednesday. Happy birthday, Ruby.

Hint of the Week
Permanent-press garments really will dry wrinkle-free if you hang them out properly. Put dry cleaning bags over plastic or coated wire hangers, hang the garments over these bags while they're still wet, and smooth out the wrinkles.

It is not enough to have a good mind; the main thing is to use it well.

KID'S KORNER

Well kids, it has been great tobogganing and skiing weather. Hope you have been able to do some of these things.

RAIN

Robert Louis Stevenson
The rain is raining all around,
It falls on field and tree,
It rains on the umbrellas here,
And on the ships at sea.

What is yellow and goes click-click?
A ball-point banana

Why were the little strawberries upset?
Because their mother and father were in a jam.

Why is a rabbit's nose so shiny?
His powder puff is on the wrong end.

What is gray and has four legs and a trunk?
A mouse going on a long vacation.

What is even more remarkable than a horse that can count?
A spelling bee.

What do you get when you cross an octopus with a bale of hay?
Eight straw brooms.

What is green and slimy, lives in swamps and ponds, and is quite dangerous?
A frog with a hand grenade.

Why do elephants have wrinkled legs?
From tying their tennis shoes too tight.

Why do elephants wear trunks?
So they won't be embarrassed when they go swimming.

Bye for now. Take it easy. God bless till next time.

SENIOR LEAGUE

by Linda English

The residents enjoyed the holiday season visiting with their families and friends. Some went to share Christmas with their families, but the majority stayed to celebrate Christmas at Hyland Crest. A delicious dinner prepared by Mark Schell and his kitchen staff was served in the auditorium. The tables were decorated with lovely festive serviette holders and centrepieces which were made by the ladies at crafts. Of course, Santa Claus and his elves visited in the morning passing out gifts and kisses to everyone. Special thanks to Wayne Cox, who was our very own Santa.

The New Year started out with our regular activities. We had our Fun and Fitness program on Monday morning and crafts later in the afternoon. In the evening several people went to the auditorium to watch the movies. "50 Years Later" told us the history of the railroad which runs from Newfoundland to Vancouver Island.

Westerners depend on the railway to ship their grain and farm products. The development of the railway has opened up many new hopes for our people.

"Patterns of Love" was all about quilt making. Since 1960 quilt making has been increasing and is considered an art. In competition judges make their decisions on colour choosing and stitching. It was entertaining to note that Mrs. Margaret Carr of Bobcaygeon was the winner of the Grand Championship prize for the Quilt Competition in this film.

Tuesday morning we welcomed Reverend George Elliott of the Minden Anglican Church to our chapel. Rev. Elliott is new to our area and we hope he will enjoy his new home. We will look forward to his visits to Hyland Crest. In the afternoon several residents enjoyed a game of Bingo in the main lounge.

Tuesday evening, Mr. Earle Cooper was here for music night. Mr. Cooper and his group entertained us with some real old-fashioned toe-tapping music. Our residents thoroughly enjoyed their evening.

Wednesday evening several people gathered again to participate in Games Night. Six of our Auxiliary Members were here to assist with euchre, cribbage, scrabble and crokinole.

Wednesday, January 14, 1981

Thursday afternoon the ladies of the Haliburton Legion brought a delicious lunch for the Tea Party. They served tea biscuits and cheese and an assortment of goodies. Our thanks to the Legion ladies for a very nice day.

Friday afternoon, the junior choir from Archie Stouffer School came to sing for us. The residents always enjoy watching the children perform, and may I add that they certainly have a lot of talent.

Kinmount Klippings

by Pat Shorter

Hi! I hope the cold didn't do too much damage to the local people. The snow on the roofs of cottages is getting heavy and some of the people are having them cleaned off. If you have an elderly neighbour with this problem, please offer a hand. There are number of young lads in town who would work for an hour or so at a small charge also.

Don't forget the Annual Kinmount and District Horticulture Society Pot Luck Supper on January 28 at 6:00 p.m. Bring your own dishes along with your pot luck donation. Donations for the penny table will gladly be accepted by Norma Hamilton or Mary Hartin.

So you thought some letters were late: we read in Toronto Star, that early last week they received notice of Christmas Post Office Hours, for 1980, we presume and postmark was December 22. Maybe not late, they just might be mailing early for 1981.

Sincere sympathy goes to the Jim Garbutt family as his mother, Mrs. Reg. Garbutt, died over the weekend.

Tomorrow's Opportunity
If we might have a second chance
To live the days once more,
And rectify mistakes we've made
To even up the score.
If we might have a second chance
To use the knowledge gained,
Perhaps we might become at last
As fine as God ordained.
But though we can't retrace our steps,
However stands the score,
Tomorrow brings another chance
For us to try once more.

We heard that Beatrice Taylor was interviewed on Peterborough T.V. last Tuesday and that she looked and sounded "great". This was in regards to the quilt exhibit at Rail's End at Haliburton village; but have you been to that yet?

At the weekly Mini Card Party at St. Paul's Parish Hall last Thursday afternoon, winners were for cribbage Lil Porter and Ruth Kellett and for euchre lone hands Pearl Cowen and others Jeanne Sears and Harry MacMinn. These start at one thirty and we play euchre and cribbage. Item of note was that Rev. Elliott, the new incumbent, dropped in for a minute to see us all.

Do you want to buy a piece of the future? A small amount, $10, will buy you a 12" x 4" plaque with your name on for a special interest wall in the new Library-Cultural Centre. i.e. Mary and John Smith. Also we have another special section "In Memorium" for your loved ones. If interested please mail in your money stating the exact wording you wish to Box 648, Minden.

Item we missed was the Christmas Family Dinner party at the home of the Randy Warburtons and some 35 people were seated for the bountiful meal of turkey and all the goodies. All the family were present except for some of the family who are out of this province.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ingram and two daughters - from Lakefield College School, Lakefield, were Saturday guests with Yvonne Beaucage and Tracy Jarrett.

A draw was made at The Brown Owl, December 20 and winners for this were: Sue Lawson, candle; Tammy Sawyer, candle; Ken Crawford, Salt & Pepper Shakers; Sue Lawson - mugs; Freda Harrison - candle; Albert Cox - candle. Consolation prizes of Brown Owl Pennants were won by: Mrs. D. Lazier, Vera Ward, Jim Smith, Jerry Walker, A.J. Hewitt, E. Tillotston, John (Gulf) Francis, Doris Kunkel and Harvey MacIntosh.

Next big event is the Kinsmen Winter Carnival slated for January 30 - February 1st. Most of the events continue as in the past years with Opening Ceremonies on Friday night, followed by the Senior and Junior Queen contest. Also there will be a dance to the DJ Tommy Williamson at Centre and a Sock Hop at the Public School Gym that evening. The parade goes Saturday at 12 noon and there will be entertainment at the Centre both Saturday and Sunday. There will be Races this year for snow machines at the Fair Grounds near the Arena and Car Races on South Lake. Hockey games will go on all weekend. So plan to come out and have a happy weekend.

If there's someone you can laugh with,
Till the tears run down your face,
If there's someone you can turn to,
When you need a helping hand,
If there's someone you can count on
To advise and understand,
If there's someone you can sit with
And not need to say a word,
If there's someone you can trust,
To keep each confidence she's heard,
If there's someone you think more of,
As each year comes to an end,
You're a very lucky person for you
Have found a special friend!
